A quick break for coffee or a refreshing dip in the sea.

Barbati Beach is a popular tourist destination, known for its beautiful pebble beach, clear turquoise waters, and stunning views of the Ionian Sea and the Albanian mountains. The area was named after the captain Barbati, when he led a group of Peloponnesian refugees from Nafplio and Monemvasia to the northeast coast of Corfu in 1571. Barbati was a small village of fishermen and farmers. The village grew in importance during the Venetian rule of Corfu (13th-18th centuries).

Kassiopi

Kassiopi, a modern town built on the foundations of an ancient city, is like a hidden treasure. The ruins of the ancient city are hidden beneath the houses and alleyways of the town, waiting to be discovered. In ancient times, in the same place where the Panagia Kassoupitissa stands today, there was a temple to Zeus, which was built in the 16th century. Kassiopi was a rich and flourishing city during the Roman era, due to its location on the sea passage.

Beaches of Kassiopi

Bataria and Pipitos

Two hidden gems on Corfu

In the area of Kassiopi, two beautiful pebble beaches hide in small secluded coves. Bataria and Pipitos are two crystal-clear diamonds waiting to be discovered.

Bataria, a piece of paradise

Bataria is an idyllic pebble beach, partially organized with sunbeds and umbrellas. The area is quiet and the waters are incredibly clear, with a stunning turquoise hue.

Imagine yourself lying on the sand, listening only to the sound of the waves crashing against the rocks and seeing the sun reflecting off the crystal-clear waters. Bataria is the perfect place to relax and enjoy nature.

Pipitos, the sister of Bataria

Pipitos is located directly across from Bataria beach. It is equally beautiful, with the same emerald waters. The beach is a few steps from the main road and is easy to access.

If you are looking for a more secluded beach, Pipitos is the perfect choice. You can enjoy the beauty of nature without being surrounded by people.

Beach of Sidari

Swimming + Lunch + Boat Trip to Breathtaking Inaccessible Beaches (optional)

A Paradise for All

Sidari Beach is one of the most beautiful beaches in Corfu. The beach is known for its crystal-clear waters, white sand, and impressive natural bridges and caves.

Sidari Beach is ideal for families with children. The waters are shallow and calm, making it safe for swimming and playing. The beach also has facilities for water sports, such as windsurfing and canoeing. In addition to its natural beauty, Sidari Beach also offers a variety of dining and drinking options. There are many tavernas and cafes on the beach where you can enjoy local cuisine and relax.

The Canal d'Amour

A Love Affair with Nature

Nestled in the heart of Sidari, lies a natural wonder that has captured the hearts of lovers for centuries: The Canal d'Amour, also known as the Channel of Love.

This narrow channel, carved into the sandstone cliffs by the relentless waves of the Ionian Sea, is a place of breathtaking beauty and enchanting myth. The towering cliffs, draped in lush vegetation, embrace the crystal-clear waters, creating a secluded oasis where love blossoms.

Legend has it that couples who swim through the channel together will be blessed with eternal love. So, whether you're a seasoned couple seeking to reaffirm your love or a budding romance just beginning to bloom, the Canal d'Amour is the perfect place to celebrate your love story.

But beyond its romantic allure, the Canal d'Amour is also a place to relax and unwind, to soak up the sun and the stunning scenery. The small sandy beach in the middle of the channel is the perfect place to spread out your towel and bask in the Mediterranean sunshine. Or, if you're feeling more adventurous, take a dip in the crystal-clear waters and explore the underwater world.

The Canal d'Amour is also a great place to go snorkeling, with its abundance of marine life and colorful coral reefs. And if you're looking for a more secluded spot, there are several small coves and beaches nearby where you can escape by boat, the crowds and enjoy a moment of peace and tranquility.

It's a place where love and nature collide, creating a truly magical experience.

Achilleion Palace

A Heavenly Paradise for the Sad Empress

The sad Empress Elisabeth of Austria, also known as Sisi, found a refuge from the sorrows of her life in Achilleion. The palace, built on the island of Corfu, was dedicated to Achilles, the legendary hero of the Trojan War, whom Sisi admired for his masculinity and courage. The decoration of Achilleion reflects Sisi's admiration for ancient Greece. The exterior gardens are decorated with statues of ancient philosophers, mythical heroes, and ancient gods. The interior of the building is also rich in ancient Greek elements, such as mosaics, frescoes, and paintings. Achilleion was a place where Sisi could relax and forget the troubles of her life. It was a heavenly paradise where the empress could live her dream of a life filled with love and beauty.

Sisi had turned Achilleion into a real museum of ancient Greece.

From Achilleion, we have a magnificent view of the Ionian Sea. The view is so beautiful that it makes us forget the problems of everyday life.

Benitses

A Traditional Fishing Village with History and Charm

Benitses is a traditional fishing village on the western coast of Corfu. It is one of the most popular tourist destinations on the island, thanks to its beautiful location, golden beaches, and rich history and cultural heritage. The village is also known for its beautiful traditional buildings, some of which are over 400 years old.

The village is built amphitheatrically on the slopes of a hill and is surrounded by lush mountains. Its beaches are among the most beautiful on Corfu, with shallow waters and white sand. Benitses is a great place to relax and enjoy the natural beauty of Corfu. It is a popular tourist destination, but it still retains its traditional Greek charm.

Marathias beach

A Symphony of Sun, Sand, and Sea

Marathias is a beach paradise, with its crystal clear turquoise waters, pure golden sand, and picturesque setting surrounded by olive groves and a mountain. It is the perfect place to relax, unwind, and have some fun.

Marathias Beach is located on the western coast of Corfu, about 32 kilometers from the city of Corfu.

The beach is about 2 kilometers long and is ideal for families with young children, as the waters are shallow and calm.

Marathias is also popular with water sports enthusiasts, as it offers a variety of activities, such as swimming, water skiing, jet skiing, and diving. Visitors can enjoy the beauty of the beach and try their hand at a variety of water sports.

Marathias is also known for its many beach bars and restaurants, which offer a variety of food and drink options. Visitors can enjoy a relaxing drink or meal with a view of the crystal-clear waters of the beach.

What to expect

Stop At: Palaiokastritsa

Paleokastritsa, the jewel of Corfu, is a place where you can relax and enjoy the beauty of nature. Upon arrival, you will be struck by the vibrant colors of the landscape. There are a lot of options to do, there is something for everyone to enjoy. If you enjoy hiking, you can ascend to the Monastery of Theotokos, a Byzantine monastery perched on a cliff overlooking the sea.

Visit its small museum and olive press.

Take a dip in the crystal-clear waters of Paleokastritsa's beaches, and allow yourself to be carried away by their dazzling beauty. It is a place where you can connect with nature and feel the energy of life.

Embark on a boat tour to explore the magical caves that are inaccessible by road, such as the Cave of Nausicaa, the Blue Eye, and the Blue Caves.

Marvel at the marine coral world of the Ionian Sea!

Savor the local cuisine and renowned wines.

Purchase souvenirs from the shops before departing.

For photography enthusiasts, Paleokastritsa is a paradise.

If you are looking for a place to relax and enjoy the beauty of the world,

Paleokastritsa is definitely the perfect destination for you.

Duration: 2 hours

Stop At: Afionas

Take a stroll through the winding streets of Afionas, where bougainvillea and jasmine cascade over whitewashed walls, and the air is filled with the briny scent of the sea.

Snap a photo of the old mansions, which have stood the test of time, and visit the church of Agios Ioannis Lampataro, built in 1636.

Soak up the magic of the sunset, as you sit on a bench and watch the sun sink below the Ionian Sea. The sky is ablaze with color, from fiery reds and oranges to gentle pinks and purples. It is a sight that will take your breath away.

Afionas

A traditional village with a rich history and stunning sunsets

Nestled in a mountainous headland on the west coast of Corfu, Afionas is a hidden gem that offers stunning views, rich history, and a charming traditional atmosphere. The village is located about 37 kilometers from Corfu Town and has panoramic views of the Ionian Sea, the islet of Gravia, the Diapontia Islands (Mathraki and Othonoi), and the Gulf of Agios Georgios.

A walk through the village's winding stone paths (kadounia) reveals a wealth of architectural treasures, including traditional stone houses, elegant mansions, and the 17th-century church of Agios Ioannis Lampataria.

About a 20-minute walk to the southwest, you'll find the stunning double beach of Porto Timoni. This two-part beach is separated by a narrow strip of land and has been named one of the best beaches in Europe.

Afionas is one of the oldest settlements on Corfu and is believed to have been named after the local grape variety. Archaeological evidence suggests that the village was first inhabited in the 6th century BC.

In addition to its long history and traditional character, Afionas is also known for its stunning natural beauty. The sunsets from the village are particularly breathtaking, with fiery colors that transform the atmosphere into a spectacle that is sure to leave you breathless.
